

What's happening this month...

MESSAGE FROM AIMEE..

The renovations are going to plan and I hope you agree that the dining room and vista lounge look great. There is obviously still a lot going on but the finished rooms are just a glimpse of what is to come. Thank you for your continued support.

As we leave summer and step into fall I am very excited to see what other changes come about as Mark and Claire settle more into their roles and bring new ideas to the community.

Remember your input and feedback is welcomed at both the activity and food committees.

Dave is working with Kevin and Rich to get apartments ready for our new residents. There are more wonderful people moving in and I look forward to introducing you to them.

Happy October!!

We have a full schedule for October starting with a trip to the Farmers Market on Tuesday the 3rd.

Todd Allen will be in on the 5th to give an update on Medicare changes and how these changes may impact you. This is an educational talk and a good opportunity to have your Medicare questions answered.

Other Thursday speakers throughout October include Preston Pierce, Sheriff Povero and Wade Sarkis. Keep an eye out for weekly updates with more details.

Our fund raising efforts for the Alzheimer's Association will continue on Friday October 6th with an Ice Cream social in the cafe, please continue to show your support.

Our Friday trips this month include Bull Hill Winery, a day in Corning, the Geneseo Warplane museum and a hop-on hop-off in the local area.

Trivia will be back on the 17th so get your studying done and come join in the fun. Then on the 24th we will hold our first resident craft show, again this is for fun and to learn more about your neighbors hidden talents.

And who could forget Halloween!?! Associates will be bringing their children in for breakfast on the 28th and we invite all of the children in your life to join us for fun and a sugar overload.

Then, get your costumes and dancing shoes ready for our Halloween social on October 31st. PARTY TIME!

OKTOBERFEST SOCIAL...FUN FOR ALL

Our Oktoberfest Social was a great gathering and fun for all. The beer and wine were flowing as people enjoyed the German themed feast and lively music. Dancing, costumes and silly props were the final touches to the evening.

Always a dance to be had

Noch ein Bier, bitte: (nock ine beer bit-a) r "Another beer, please!"

Prost!: (Pröst) "Cheers!"

Guten Appetite!: (goo-ten app-a-teet)
The German version of bon appetite

Who ordered pretzels?

We always wear dirndl's, nothing to do with Oktoberfest...

I am a firm believer in the people. If given the truth, they can be depended upon to meet any national crisis. The great point is to bring them the real facts, and beer.

Resident's Corner...meet Jean Bub

Jean has always enjoyed the outdoors and from a young age she would go camping and hiking with her parents.

Her passion for hiking has taken her to many destinations around the world with Nepal being one of the most exotic. In 2000 , Jean flew into Jomson and started her trek with a group of friends through the Mustang region. With horses carrying their supplies and Sherpa's guiding the way they camped and hiked the trails over a period of 13 days. There were some icy mornings as the altitude increased but she never suffered sickness and the views and experience kept her warm.

Jean has visited many places in Europe including England, France, Italy and Spain. This month she is returning to France with four friends to spend another 3 weeks hiking. Jean loves the sightseeing that she can do by foot and feels that it is an experience you could not get on a bus tour, "walking gives you the time to really explore an area and meet locals as you go".

Resting after a day of hiking in France.

People were trying to picture Sybil in her yellow Mustang ever since she talked about her first car. The wait is over and Al Johnson found evidence that it really did exist.
