JULY 2023

Ferris Hills is Alive with the Sound of Music

While musical performances are a staple of our monthly activity calendar, we always kick it up a notch in the summer, and this year is no exception.

On July 13, we welcomed the Finger Lakes Chamber Music Festival string quartet featuring the festival's artistic director, Richard Auldon Clark. Clark is the conductor and music director of both the Manhattan Chamber Orchestra and the Butler Symphony Orchestra. He was joined in the quartet by members of the Manhattan Chamber Orchestra.

"They delighted residents with a bit of everything with their 'Bach to Rock' program covering Bach and Beethoven, Duke Ellington, Henry Mancini, The Beatles, folk, ragtime, jazz, dance rhythms, the best of Broadway, themes from films, even old-fashioned fiddle music," said Resident Services Manager Claire Watson.

The following week, John Paulsen and Tim Chaapel with special guest Richie Cardinale brought their "good time music" to Ferris Hills to kick off a series of courtyard concerts. They were followed on July 26 by jazz from the Bill Tiberio Band.

The Finger Lakes Chamber Music Festival string quartet delighted our residents in our Rayburn Hall.

You still have two chances to join us for our courtyard concerts!

On Wednesday, August 2, we will welcome back the Music Makers big band. Then, on August 9, popular local duo Meyer & McGuire will return to share their folk, Americana, and country sound.

Don't forget to bring your lawn chair!
